4. Update on Southern Nevada Public Lands Management Act (SNPLMA) Projects. (For Discussion)

Park Project Manager Erin Reiswerg reported on the below SNPLMA Projects, and replied to questions asked by the Board.

Southern Nevada Public Lands Management Act

- Passed by congress in 1998
- It requires that a portion of BLM disposable boundary lands sales be used for a variety of funding including land conservation, habitat restoration, and creating parks and trails.
- Notable CNLV Projects - Land Acquisition and development of Craig Ranch and Kiel Ranch

Construction:

- Kiel Ranch Phase 4
 - North Parking and overlook to the Pond/park.
 - Seating, shade
 - Interpretive
 - Walking connections to the pond boardwalk.

Design:

- Kiel Ranch Phase 6 (there was not a 5) - 60 % design working towards 90%
 - Will complete the acreage for the park
 - Additional parking
 - Splash pad
 - Playground
 - Trails
 - Interpretive signage
 - Shade structures and picnic
 - Adding traditional park elements to overlook the historic portion of the park.
- Beltway Trail -Working on 30% design.
 - Decatur to 5th Street along the 215
 - Trail, signage and minimal landscaping
- Cheyenne Sports Complex - Working on details to start design.
 - Splash pad
 - Playground
 - Track resurfacing
 - Site furnishings
 - Signage

Pre-Design – Awarded (round 19) awaiting BLM to move forward...likely late summer/fall 2024

- Beltway Trail Phase 2
 - 5th Street to Losee along 215
- Children's Science and Nature Park – approx. 32 million
 - McCool Regional Park
 - Approx. 14 acres wrapped around the UNLV's Center for Urban Water Conservation
 - Promote STEM learning
 - Engineering, Microbiology, Volcanology, Astronomy, Math, Biology, Chemistry
 - Think outdoor interactive exhibits like you can find at springs preserve
- Craig Ranch 20 Acre Addition – approx. 24 mill
 - Off of Camino al Norte, west of the park
 - Playground
 - Splash pad
 - Nature water play area
 - 6 Pickle Ball Courts
 - Fitness Circuit
 - Restroom

STAFF COMMENTS

Ms. Derek praised the work and detail that Ms. Reiswerg have diligently performed. She added two upcoming projects that city staff will definitely seek feedback and information regarding those projects, as they want to make sure that they are putting in the best amenities as they move forward, and what really serves the community.

BOARD COMMENTS

Member Brown inquired as to the roundabout at Seastrand Park. He asked for an update regarding the centerpiece. He noted that the paint on the large stone sport balls have begun to fade due to the weather. He asked whether staff have plans to repaint those balls. Seastrand Park along the south boundary of the park where the park meets that wash, that concrete wash. There are sections of that short chain link fence that are sagging and that are in disrepair. Lastly, he inquired as to the status of the Villages at Tule Springs, north of the beltway that is currently being developed. He asked about the timeline on that project.

Ms. Rodgers stated that staff would take note of the questions posed, and that city staff would provide a report during the next scheduled meeting.

Member Cannon inquired as to the type of art would be allowable in the parks, and who would be able to submit an application to have art placed in parks. Ms. Reiswerg stated that she would provide a report during the next meeting.

Chairman Branch asked for the date of the next scheduled meeting as he will be traveling in April. Ms. Rodgers confirmed that it the meeting would be held on April 9. Chairman Branch indicated that he would not be present for the meeting in April, and asked Vice Chairwoman to chair the meeting in April.
