STAFF COMMENTS AND BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The 268 fund is a North Las Vegas voter approved property tax override that has been used by the City since 2001 to improve parks, trails, pools and recreation centers. The fund is important to the Parks and Recreation Department because it assists with maintaining City assets for the residents and the community to use. Staff will be presenting on how the 268 fund has been vital to the Parks and Recreation Department's success.
