Appointment of Will Harty as Assistant City Manager

Service Date: 4/15/19 Date Appointment: 7/1/2023

William Harty joined the City of North Las Vegas leadership team in April of 2019. As the Finance Director, William manages the accounting, finance, budgeting, risk management, and purchasing functions for the city. Previously, William served as the Vice President of Finance for Brady Linen Services, which operates here in North Las Vegas. In this role, William was responsible for various accounting and financial reporting functions including profitability analytics. Prior to joining the team at Brady Linen, William served as the Corporate Finance Manager for NV Energy. He was responsible for budgeting, long term financial planning, and calculating the profitability of major capital projects. In addition, William helped manage the assets for the pension and 401K plans at NV Energy. Mr. Harty graduated from Brigham Young University in 2004 with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science, with minors in Business and Spanish. In 2008, William completed a Masters in Business Administration with a finance emphasis. William has multiple professional designations including the Chartered Financial Analyst and Certified Managerial Accountant certificates. He and his wife Susana have ten kids, four girls and six boys.
