Appointment of Terri Sheridan as Director of Economic Development

Service Date: 1/3/2006     Date Appointment: 10/7/2023

Terri Sheridan joined the City of North Economic Development team in January 2006. On a daily basis, Terri helps to lead the Economic Development team to attract new business and investment to the City and Redevelopment areas by developing marketing materials, recruiting major corporations to locate to the City, and acts as a liaison with developers and retailers. Terri works to highlight and drive City's competitive advantages to generate new investment revenues and jobs through business attraction and expansion efforts. Terri has worked to oversee, prepare, and process contracts and development agreements associated with redevelopment and economic development projects.

Terri was a member of the inaugural Leadership North Las Vegas class in 2009. Prior to joining the City, Terri worked at the Nevada Development Authority now known as the Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance. Terri graduated from Western New England University in Springfield, Massachusetts with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration Management.
