STAFF COMMENTS AND BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The Veterans Community Commission (VCC) reviewed and approved the Strategic Work Plan and Goals for fiscal year 2022-2023 and the Calendar of Events for August 2022 to May 2023, which pertain to the City's veteran community and Veterans Resource Center. Mike Kelly will be giving a presentation on the VCC Strategic Work Plan.

Staff recommends that the City Council approve the VCC Strategic Work Plan and calendar of events for September 2022 to May 2023. The VCC will attend and provide support for each event. First, the VCC will assist in advertising this event on their social media to increase attendance of the Support Forgotten Not Gone Trike Brigade Event on September 22, 2022. Second, the VCC will provide outreach by sponsoring a booth for Military Appreciation day on October 22, 2022. Third, they will participate in the Veteran's Day Parade by bringing North Las Vegas (NLV) Veteran's to the parade on November 10, 2022. Fourth, to help NLV families in need in connection with Nellis Airforce Base, the VCC will host a Veterans Thanksgiving Meal Giveaway on November 18, 2022. Fifth, the VCC will sign up with the Toys for Tots campaign to deliver gifts to selected NLV families by December 9, 2024. Sixth, the Women Veterans Event on March 25, 2023, will be supported through advertising and attendance of VCC members. Lastly, the Memorial Day Resource Fair will take place on May 26, 2023. The VCC will take part in this event and assist through amplifying attendance efforts.
