STAFF COMMENTS AND BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The City contracted with Data Insight Partners to conduct a study on the condition of education in North Las Vegas Schools in order to better understand the needs of the City’s students. Data has been collected from the U.S. Department of Education, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Nevada Department of Education and the Clark County School District. Data Insight Partners analyzed and organized this data into three major areas to better understand school staffing, student outcomes, and education funding. Another goal of the study was to focus on student experiences and outcomes of students in North Las Vegas public schools and compare those experiences and outcomes to students in other southern Nevada municipalities as well as other large urban districts from around the country. Through this research and data compilation, the City seeks to be able to define major obstacles to improving student learning in North Las Vegas Schools, and identify the levers available to help overcome those obstacles.
